

PROFESSIONAL STAFF ORIENTATION

The school board considers proper orientation of teachers new to the division as extremely important.

For this reason, new teachers shall go through an orientation workshop designed to assist them in becoming acquainted with and adjusted to the community, the school division, the school, the policies of the school board, administrative rules and regulations, and the instructional program.

Adopted: February 14, 1995
